Attivismo alimentare in Sardegna Carole Counihan,2020-12-17 La prospettiva di questo volume è quella dell'antropologia dell'alimentazione. Il libro è uno studio etnografico, condotto nella città di Cagliari, dell'attivismo alimentare ( food activism), cioè delle mobilitazioni attivate nel campo dell'alimentazione, in quanto tentativo pubblico di promuovere la giustizia economica e sociale attraverso il cibo. La sua finalità è approfondire la conoscenza del mondo degli attivisti alimentari, che lavorano per un cambiamento strutturale all'interno delle istituzioni, accomunati dal desiderio di resistere al sistema agroindustriale che domina sempre più nell'approvvigionamento del cibo in tutto il mondo. Parte da un case study etnografico sulla costellazione di movimenti alternativi focalizzati intorno alle pratiche di scambio e consumo di cibo nel capoluogo della Sardegna, che coinvolge soggetti legati al mondo della produzione (aziende agricole, cooperative, fattorie didattiche), della distribuzione (mercati di contadini, negozi bio, GAS), del consumo (ristoranti, Slow Food). Attraverso le dense descrizioni narrative raccolte, il saggio prova a ricostruire puntualmente le azioni e motivazioni che hanno condotto attori molto variegati a cambiare il loro modo di intendere e consumare il cibo, in modo militante, mentre perseguono alternative di base al sistema agro-industriale. L'analisi si concentra su tre temi trasversali, emersi nelle interviste con gli attivisti del cibo in area cagliaritano: il significato del territorio e del luogo, l'importanza del gusto come strategia di azione, l'obiettivo di costruire comunità anche tramite pratiche educative.

Italian Food Activism in Urban Sardinia Carole Counihan,2020-06-25 With her new book, Italian Food Activism in Urban Sardinia, cultural anthropologist Carole Counihan makes a significant contribution to understanding the growing global movement for food democracy. Providing a detailed ethnographic case study from Cagliari, the capital of the Italian island-region of Sardinia, she draws upon Sardinians' own descriptions of their actions and motivations to change their food as they pursue grassroots alternatives to the agro-industrial food system through GAS (Gruppi di Acquisito Solidale or solidarity-based purchase groups), organic and urban agriculture, alternative restaurants, and farm-to-school programs. They link their activism to the sensory and emotional resonance of food and its nostalgic connections to place, tradition, and culture. They stress the importance of education through experience, and they build relationships and networks through workshops, farm visits, and commensality. The book focuses on three key themes to emerge in interviews with Cagliari food activists: the significance of territorio (or place), the importance of taste, and the role of education. By exploring these areas of concern, Counihan uncovers key tensions in consumption as a force for change, in individual vs. group actions, and in political and economic power relations, which are of crucial importance to wider global efforts to promote food democracy.

Flour and Breads and their Fortification in Health and Disease Prevention Victor R Preedy, Ronald Ross Watson, Vinood B. Patel, 2011-02-17 Bread and flour-based foods are an important part of the diet for millions of people worldwide. Their complex nature provides energy, protein, minerals and many other macro- and micronutrients. However, consideration must be taken of three major aspects related to flour and bread. The first is that not all cultures consume bread made from wheat flour. There are literally dozens of flour types, each with their distinctive heritage, cultural roles and nutritive contents. Second, not all flours are used to make leavened bread in the traditional (i.e., Western) loaf form. There are many different ways that flours are used in the production of staple foods. Third, flour and breads provide a suitable means for fortification: either to add components that are removed in the milling and purification process or to add components that will increase palatability or promote health and reduce disease per se. Flour and Breads and their Fortification in Health and Disease Prevention provides a single-volume reference to the healthful benefits of a variety of flours and flour products, and guides the reader in identifying options and opportunities for improving health through flour and fortified flour products. - Examines those flour and bread related agents that affect metabolism and other health-related conditions - Explores the impact of compositional differences between flours, including differences based on country of origin and processing technique - Includes methods for analysis of flours and bread-related compounds in other foods

Altered Pasts Richard J. Evans, 2014-03-27 A bullet misses its target in Sarajevo, a would-be Austrian painter gets into the Viennese academy, Lord Halifax becomes British prime minister in 1940: seemingly minor twists of fate on which world-shaking events might have hinged. Alternative history has long been the stuff of parlour games, war-gaming and science fiction, but over the past few decades it has become a popular stomping ground for serious historians. Richard J. Evans now turns a critical, slightly jaundiced eye on the subject. Altered Pasts examines the intellectual fallout from historical counterfactuals. Most importantly, Evans takes counterfactual history seriously, looking at the insights, pitfalls and intellectual implications of changing one thread in the weave of history.

Procedura Salvatore Mannuzzu, 1993 Published to unanimous acclaim in Europe and winner of Italy's prestigious Viareggio Prize for fiction, Procedura introduces a writer of world-class fiction. At the end of a none too brilliant career, a judge, sent to Sardinia from the mainland, lives alone in a small town, broken relationships and partings left behind him. When a colleague suddenly dies, he is entrusted with the investigation and soon finds himself entwined in the most intimate knowledge of judge Valerio Garau's life - from his rich, orphaned childhood with its hints of scandal to the red-and-blue capsule with its grain of cyanide that one morning caused him to fall backward among the cafe tables while joking with his mistress. Was Garau's death suicide, mistake, or murder? His ex-wife or his mistress, his priestly uncle or his blind aunt, his colleagues or his lover's illustrious and influential husband: all of these could be suspected of wanting to free themselves of him. And who was Judge Garau? A cynic, a seducer, a liar, a naif? The investigator must reconstruct a life from the people and effects left behind: yellowed photographs of distant carnivals, archeological finds collected for who knows what passion or pretext, stolen letters, forced locks, police chiefs, homosexuals, and schoolmistresses...--BOOK JACKET. Sea and Sardinia D. H. Lawrence, 1997-06-05 Written after the First World War when he was living in Sicily, Sea and Sardinia records Lawrence's journey to Sardinia and back in January 1921. It reveals his response to a new landscape and people and his ability to transmute the spirit of place into literary art. Like his other travel writings the book is also a shrewd inquiry into the political and social values of an era which saw the rise of communism and fascism. On one level an indictment of contemporary materialism, Sea and Sardinia is nevertheless an optimistic book, celebrating the creativity of the human spirit and seeking in the fundamental laws which governed human nature in the past fresh inspiration for the present. This 1997 edition restores censored passages and corrects corrupt textual readings to reveal for the first time the book Lawrence himself called 'a marvel of veracity'.

Spaghetti Dinner: (cooklore Reprint) Giuseppe Prezzolini, 2018-07-17 A delightful look at the history and folklore of spaghetti and its arrival in America. Included are numerous historic and favorite spaghetti recipes.
