Nancy E. Dollahite, Julie Haun

Sourcework Nancy E. Dollahite, Julie Haun, 2005-07-01 Sourcework helps students work from outside sources and guides them through the challenging terrain of their first academic research papers. Students master all the skills necessary to support their own ideas: note-taking from readings, analyzing information, outlining structures, creating thesis statements, authoring introductions and conclusions, and writing and refining drafts. At each stage, students learn how to document evidence, integrate references, paraphrase, synthesize, and summarize.

Writing from Sources Brenda Spatt, 1995-11 Guides students through the process of using source materials in a research paper.

Writing from Sources Brenda Spatt, 1999

Writing from Sources Brenda Spatt, 2003-01-01 - A systematic approach to using sources introduces research and writing skills gradually, in lessons of progressive difficulty, with 32 exercises and 13 writing assignments so that students can master each skill (such as finding sources) before moving on to the next one (evaluating sources). Separate chapters on single-source and multiple-source essays let students work with the simpler demands of a single source before introducing them to the more complex skills of multiple-source writing.- Covering more than just research, the book provides detailed guidance for each step of the writing process, including brainstorming a topic, formulating a thesis, developing an argument, paraphrasing and quoting, and integrating source material appropriately and smoothly into an essay. To illustrate these steps, 53 reading selections appear throughout the text in exercises and assignments as well as in explanations of writing and research skills.- Extensively revised chapters on electronic research give students updated and more detailed explanations and examples of searching for sources, deciding which ones are worth pursuing, and using computers to take notes and facilitate other stages of the research and writing process.

Writing with Sources Gordon Harvey, 2008-09-01 Developed for Harvard University's Expository Writing Program, Writing with Sources describes the main principles and methods of integrating and citing sources in scholarly work, and provides cogent guidance on avoiding the misuse of sources. The second edition of Writing with Sources is updated throughout, and includes new material on the roles sources play in argument, on assessing the reliability of sources, and on attitudes about writing that can lead to plagiarism.
